A message from our new President, Darice Mayhew:

I am thrilled to step into the role of president for HRPCPA, especially as we celebrate our 25th anniversary—a remarkable milestone that highlights our growth and impact over the years. This year, my focus will be on driving membership growth and engagement, while enhancing our programming to ensure we continue to meet the evolving needs of our community. I am also deeply committed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion, not just within our membership, but across the broader network of industry professionals, vendors, and partners. As we honor this significant anniversary, I look forward to building on our legacy and creating new opportunities for all members to thrive.
